This Memorandum of Understanding is between the following organisations:

Association of British Clinical Diabetologists
British Cardiovascular Society
The Renal Association
Primary Care Cardiovascular Society
Primary Care Diabetes Society

1. The Societies agree to collaborate on educational projects targeted at both patients and medical professionals. These could include but are not limited to:
 - Joint meetings of Societies
 - Joint sessions within society meetings
 - Stand-alone meetings
 - Events targeted at primary care
 - Joint audit and research projects
 - Clinical Service quality improvement
2. The Societies agree to collaborate in producing documents of consensus recommendations from existing guidelines for the practical management of those living with several conditions relevant to this memorandum.
3. The Societies agree to make a joint approach for cross industry funding to support educational initiatives and document writing that will not impact on their own individual agreements with companies.
4. The Societies agree that educational material produced shall be the joint property of all active contributors.
5. The Societies agree that material produced under the agreement should be jointly branded.
6. This agreement will remain in place for an initial period of 3 years until 30th November 2022 and be reviewed annually.
