

BACR Annual Conference Harrogate 2003 Feedback

A selection of comments made by delegates at the BACR Annual Conference Harrogate 2003

"I have already made a list of 'jobs to do' for when I get back to work and discuss them with our team."

"A worthwhile two days"

"I know now where to seek out more information and gain more knowledge and so pass it on to my patients to help life long exercise, behaviour changes etc."

"Excellent and very thought provoking"

"A very wide and varied conference, very enjoyable with so many different topics covered."

"I now feel more up to date with increased confidence in new developments and ideas"

"I would like to hear more about motivational techniques at future conferences"

"Good for networking – nice to see all CR teams are in the same boat!"

"Encourage more physios to present"
