

The Early Consultant Career Course

A British Cardiovascular Society national symposium

British Cardiovascular Society, London, 25/1/19

| Morning Session - Chair: Dr Sarah Clarke |  |                    |
|--|--|--------------------|
| 08.30 – 09.00                            | Registration   |                    |
| 09.00 – 09.10                            | Welcome &amp; Introduction  | Course directors   |
| 09.10 - 09.30                            | Challenges of the Consultant Post – The Early YearsNegotiating your job planBalancing service provision and survivalTop Tips for successful integration with colleagues | Dr Rasha Al-Lamee  |
| 09.30 - 09.50                            | Career ProgressionPersonal and career developmentTeam building & Clinical Leadership  | Dr Dawn Adamson    |
| 09.50 – 10.10                            | How to Establish and Deliver a High-Quality ServiceKey performance indicatorsNeeds of pts and service demandsStrategic planning   | Dr Suzanna Hardman |
| 10.10 – 10.30                            | Private Practice and Work-Life BalanceGetting started   | Dr William Orr     |
| 10.30 - 11.00                            | Tea and Coffee   |                    |
| 11.00 - 11.20                            | The Multifaceted role of a ConsultantRole in training / educational and clinical supervisorChairing a meetingDealing with difficult colleagues / mediation              | Dr Anna Maria Choy |
| 11.20 - 11.40                            | Developing a Research Portfolio   | Prof Rod Stables   |
| 11.40 - 12.10                            | 'Ask the Expert'Floor open to questions for panel of experts  | BCS Speaker Panel  |
| 12.10 - 12.30                            | Keynote LectureLife as a Consultant Cardiologist  | Dr Sara Thorne     |
| 12.30 - 13.30                            | Lunch   |                    |

The Early Consultant Career Course

A British Cardiovascular Society national symposium

British Cardiovascular Society, London, 25/1/19

| Afternoon Session - Chair: Professor John Greenwood |   |                          |
|---|---|--------------------------|
| 13.30 - 13.50                                       | Who are “The Management”Navigating the relationship between clinician and manager  | Dr Richard Grocott-Mason |
| 13.50 - 14.10                                       | Different StrokesLocal & National NHS Structure & RelationsInsights into the relationships between different subspecialties.                                   | Dr David Fluck           |
| 14.10 - 14.30                                       | How to get involvedLocally, nationally, and internationally  | Dr Sarah Clarke          |
| 14.30 - 14.50                                       | RevalidationKeeping up to dateMeeting the needs for revalidation efficiently –   | Dr Simon Ray             |
| 14.50 - 15.10                                       | Tea & Coffee  |                          |
| 15.10 - 15.30                                       | ComplicationsCommon pitfalls in cardiologyHow to bypass them   | Dr Clare Appleby         |
| 15.30 - 15.50                                       | Handling the aftermathManagement of clinical error / incidentAdverse Event (Datix) reportingResponding to a complaint / Appearing at a coroner’s enquiry – | Dr Andrew Wragg          |
| 15.50 - 16.10                                       | Understanding the culture of your organisationFunding streams in the NHS – where the money comes from?The hospital budget – who holds the keys?                | Dr Andrew Hogarth        |
| 16.10 – 16.50                                       | ‘Ask the Expert ‘Floor open to questions for panel of experts  | BCS Speaker Panel        |
| 16.50 – 17.00                                       | Closing Remarks  | Course directors         |